Hotel Indonesia Kempinski Jakarta in Condé Nast Traveler Hot List 2010

Jakarta, 26 April 2010 – Hotel Indonesia Kempinski Jakarta is pleased to announce their achievement to be listed in the Condé Nast Traveler Hot List 2010 amongst 134 hotel properties in 55 countries for the category of the style, service, technology and aura.

As mentioned in the review, Hotel Indonesia Kempinski Jakarta had “reinvented” the property, making them to be one of the strongest bidders to become the city’s top choice. The standard rooms are spacious (44sqm) and designed in a relaxed mix of traditional motives with contemporary lushness. The rooms are equipped with technological marvels: a 42-inch flat-screen TV, lightning-fast Wi-Fi, a long range cordless phones that ring at the pool or coffee shop, then the Futurama toilet, and more options.

The excellent Signatures Restaurant, presided over by life-size photos of Indonesia’s flamboyant first president, Soekarno, with Marilyn Monroe and JFK. When it was opened in 1962, Hotel Indonesia was a 14-story marvel of modernism and became the preferred address for visiting foreign dignitaries, movie stars, and journalists, even playing a prominent role in The Year of Living Dangerously.
