The good feeling of being dressed just right

To help you prepare your holiday wardrobe, we have set a simple dress code that will allow you to take advantage of our variety of dining and entertainment options. Ensuring you are perfectly dressed for every occasion.

In general, the dress code for breakfast in the Restaurant Johann Grill and when visiting our Lobby Lounge & Kaminbar, whether during the day or in the evening, is resort casual or resort evening wear.

For dinner at the Restaurant Johann Grill, Bergstüberl and in the Vinothek we ask you to pack resort evening wear. To enjoy an evening in our 2* Michelin Gourmet Restaurant PUR, we advise you to pack elegant evening wear.

RESORT CASUAL

This style is mainly worn for breakfast and lunch. We recommend T-shirts, polo shirts, light blouses or relaxed shirts that can be combined with jeans, capri pants or shorts. You are welcome to wear tennis shoes, sneakers and sandals. In summer, open shoes such as flip-flops are permitted.
Please note that the Kempinski slippers are intended exclusively for the spa area and your room.

RESORT EVENING WEAR

Men should pack elegant shorts, pants or a nice pair of jeans with a polo or other collared shirt. T-shirts, sleeveless shirts and simple shorts are less welcome. Women can choose a casual dress or combine a top with a nice pair of jeans, trousers or a skirt. For shoes, both men and women may choose between elegant sandals or closed shoes. We would ask you to refrain from wearing flip-flops in the evening.

ELEGANT EVENING WEAR

Formal wear at a resort is usually chosen for weddings and other special occasions. However, we recommend a casual version, similar to what you would wear to a cocktail party. For men, wearing a suit or a jacket. Alternatively, a matching outfit can be a smart pair of trousers combined with a nice shirt and elegant shoes. Wearing sandals is not permitted. Women can select several options. You can choose between long and short dresses, smart trouser suits or skirts with a matching top. A pair of elegant shoes rounds off the outfit.
