JAVA: ISLAND OF ABUNDANCE

Java is the heart of the archipelago, and many stories of Indonesian history take place on this island. In the past, Java was the centre of several Hindu-Buddhist kingdoms, Islamic sultanates, the Dutch East Indies colonial administration, and the centre of the Indonesian independence movement. The island has had a major impact on Indonesia's social, political and economic life.

ARRIVAL RITUAL

Wedang Uwuh, the traditional drink of Java will be served to guests as they arrive at the resort. This drink is made from various leaves, such as ginger, nutmeg, lemongrass and more, giving a sense of warmth as you arrive. Adding to the experience, The Apurva Kempinski Bali's dedicated lobby ambassadors will welcome guests in one of the traditional outfits of Java.

CULINARY DIVERSITY

Bai Yun

Sup Tahu Campur Lamongan is a very beloved food that comes from East Java. In Indonesian language, tahu means tofu and campur means mix. The mixed tofu is a typical Lamongan soup, complete with boiled beef, lettuce, bean sprouts, noodles or rice cake, and cassava cakes. To give you the flavours of Java, Bai Yun has created a special hot pot soup based on the traditional dish.
