ROOMS & SUITES

The 221 timelessly elegant rooms and suites combine generous grand hotel architecture of the turn of the century with the amenities of modern living environments. Perfectly staged art objects and elegant decorative elements, such as Murano glass chandeliers and Makasser ebony furniture, lend a personal touch. The high ceilings (up to 4 m (13.1 ft)) and floor-to-ceiling windows, some with direct views of the Alster, create a feeling of spaciousness to create a modern and luxurious atmosphere of wellbeing. All the rooms and suites offer spacious Italian marble bathrooms with a separate rain shower and bath for comfort on the highest level. Furthermore, they offer a Nespresso machine, an LED TV with video on demand, WLAN, an entertainment system, Internet radio and a docking station for MP3 players and individually regulated air conditioning.

SIGHTSEEING

Hamburg, the gateway to the world, is the most prosperous and second largest city in Germany with 1.8 million inhabitants. Directly next to Hamburg's Alster Lake, swans-shaped boats, sailboats and stately mansions characterise the image. The jetties with majestic ocean giants and the spectacular harbour city with the Elbe Philharmonic and more than 50 museums are well worth seeing. Hamburg visitors will also find exclusive shopping malls, trendy restaurants, musicals and the most legendary and sinful mile in the world: the Reeperbahn entertainment district in St Pauli.
